33rd ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

MAY 31 - JUNE 1, 2019

HOSTED BY SHEPHERD UNIVERSITY,
SHEPHERDSTOWN, WEST VIRGINIA

Welcome Message to Attendees at the 2019 Annual International Conference of Phi Beta Delta Honor Society for International Scholars

Dear Phi Beta Delta Members and Friends,

It is my great pleasure and honor to welcome you to the 33rd Annual International Conference of Phi Beta Delta Honor Society for International Scholars at the beautiful campus of Shepherd University at Shepherdstown, West Virginia.

I would like to thank President Mary J.C. Hendrix of Shepherd University, Provost Scott Beard, Theta Epsilon Chapter of PBD, Ann Marie Legreid, Chapter Coordinator and Dean of the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences, and their staff members behind the scenes at Shepherd University for their greatest support to this conference.

Today, we gather to reinforce our goal to recognize achievements and exchange ideas in international education. The theme for this year is Innovative Strategies in Promoting Global Learning. We have 36 wonderful proposals and 9 posters from all over the country, including one from England.

I am honored to be part of PBD Society and have the opportunity to serve as the Chapter Coordinator of the Eta Lambda Chapter at the College of Staten Island/The City University of New York and for the PBD Society at the national level. I have learned a lot in this position and a big thank you to our Presidential team and our Board members for this opportunity. Without their support this conference would not have been possible, and more importantly, without your participation we would not have this conference.

Last, we would like to extend a special welcome to our guest, Dr. Paul Rich, for his dedication and continuous support to the Society and especially his contributions towards establishing the Guillermo De Los Reyes Plenary Speaker Endowment Fund. We also welcome Mr. Daniel Gutierrez, Executive Director of the Policy Studies Organization. We thank them for joining us during their busy schedules.

Our keynote speaker is Ms. Christine L. Glover, J.D. who is an Immigration Attorney for Catholic Charities of West Virginia's Migration and Refugee Services. Christine is a summa cum laude graduate from Georgetown University and West Virginia University College of Law. We are also very fortunate that Dr. James Broomall, Director of the George Tyler Moore Center for the Study of the Civil War in Shepherdstown, will lead a personal tour of Civil War sites in the region, including the Antietam National Battlefield. History faculty members Dr. Ben Bankhurst is leading a second Civil War tour on Sunday afternoon and Dr. Keith Alexander is leading a walking tour of Shepherdstown on Friday morning.

If you would like to start a PBD chapter, reactivate a chapter, or have a new idea for PBD, please do not hesitate to speak with one of our board members. We would love to hear from you!

Thank you all for joining us at this annual conference, and we hope that you have a productive weekend while meeting old and new friends. See you again next year!

Best wishes,

Winnie Brophy
2018-2019 President, Phi Beta Delta Honor Society for International Scholars
