International Research and Review

The IRR is the official journal of Phi Beta Delta, Honor Society for International Scholars. It is published on-line only on the Phi Beta Delta website. It is published in the Fall and Spring depending on the quantity and quality of the submissions. On the menu above, refer to the Aims and Scope for more detailed information about the publication. The Author Guidelines provides information to the authors about submission, format, and structure. On the website both Current and Past Issues are available.

The Proceedings of Phi Beta Delta

The Proceedings of Phi Beta Delta is published for the purpose of: providing an outlet for member articles, ideas and activities related to international education; serving as a record of Conference, Webinar, and other presentations; and serving as a record of issues, topics, and information about the Society. These articles may be written members of Phi Beta Delta: faculty, staff, and students. As the Proceedings are published online, they may include visual and written formats, along with appropriate verified links. The Proceedings is published in tandem with the IRR when there are sufficient submissions.

Medallion e-Newsletter

The Medallion e-Newsletter is our quarterly publication of Society news and events. It is sent to all members of the Society. It includes issues, commentary, blogs, reports, and information about chapter activities.

Send all correspondence and submissions for the International Research and Review and the Proceedings to Dr. Michael Smithee, Director of Publications and Editor, at ms@smitheeassociates.com

Send all correspondence and submissions for the Medallion e-Newsletter to Sarah Lindell, Editor, at slindell@niu.edu
