

A Message from the Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program

Greetings from the Fulbright Scholar program. We hope this message finds you safe and healthy. We are reaching out to our alumni to ask for your assistance in publicizing some enriching opportunities available for the 2021-22 academic year. Alumni referrals greatly contribute to the program, ensuring the next round of Fulbright scholars can continue the program's global impact. Could you please share this message with your colleagues and Ph.D. students?

Experienced Scholars

We have over 450 awards available across the globe open to either specific, multiple or all disciplines. The complete list of opportunities is located in the Catalog of Awards, but please note these awards are open to U.S. citizens only. Opportunities range from 2 to 12 months in length and some awards include flexible options for multiple short visits. The application deadline is September 15, 2020. Interested applicants can join My Fulbright and check out our webinars for insight on the application process. Recommend someone to start an application today!

Senior Leadership

The Fulbright International Education Administrator \(IEA\) Seminars provide funding both for U.S. senior higher education officials and international education professionals to create empowering connections with the societal, cultural and higher education systems of other countries.

We welcome you to share this opportunity with your senior leadership today and encourage them to apply for a Fulbright! The U.S.-France IEA in particular is looking for senior leaders such as deans, directors, vice presidents, provosts and presidents.
