

Phi Beta Delta International Honor Society

Omega Omega Chapter

Preamble:

The Omega Omega chapter was approved by the Phi Beta Delta Board of Directors at the April 10, 2013 meeting as the PBD headquarters alumni chapter. The chapter was established to meet the need to confer PBD membership to eligible independent scholars; to faculty, staff, students, and alumni at academic institutions which lack an active PBD chapter or whose local PBD chapter has become inactive; and to Honorary members and Lifetime active members who have no chapter or whose home chapter is no longer active.

The Omega Omega chapter is subject to the PBD Society's by-laws. Its members enjoy membership privileges as long as they remain dues-paying, active members.

The Omega Omega chapter shall hold an induction ceremony as well as a general meeting of its members during the annual PBD conference meeting days.

Omega Omega members are strongly encouraged to:

- Attend events and activities held by PBD chapters in their region;
- Participate in the annual PBD conference;
- Contribute to the PBD journal and e-newsletter;
- Assist in fundraising efforts for the Society, including sponsorship of PBD awards

The Omega Omega chapter is housed at the PBD Headquarters. The management of the chapter is vested in the Phi Beta Delta Board of Directors, with the Society's Administrative Assistant serving as the chapter coordinator. The chapter coordinator shall arrange for each new member's induction ceremony if it is not practical to wait till the annual conference for the formal induction ceremony. As the chapter grows in numbers, chapter officers shall be elected to office by the chapter members.

Criteria for eligibility into the Omega Omega Chapter:

Membership in the Omega Omega chapter of Phi Beta Delta Honor Society is open to individuals who have demonstrated scholarly achievement in the international area through studies, research, and/or scholarly and creative activities, and who are, or who were, affiliated with an institution (granting at least a baccalaureate degree) that lacks an active chapter of the Phi Beta Delta International Honor Society. These individuals include:

1. Distinguished faculty and staff, independent scholars, Honorary members, and Lifetime active members who have been involved in recognized international endeavors (i.e. research, teaching, program development, leadership, or service);

2. International students (non-immigrant visa holders in the upper division or graduate levels) and alumni who have demonstrated high scholastic achievement at their institution;
3. Domestic students (upper division and graduate level) and alumni who have demonstrated high scholastic achievement in the pursuit of academic studies abroad or in participation in comparable international programs or experiences in their home institution.

Please note that for students and alumni (2 and 3 above), the Phi Beta Delta Honor Society Board of Directors has stipulated the provision that undergraduate student members must have achieved a minimum 3.2 grade point average (GPA) and rank in the top 20% of their class; graduate students must have achieved a GPA of 3.5; for schools that use a different grade point average system, the school must verify that their candidates for Phi Beta Delta meet a GPA standard equivalent to that specified in this Section.

4. Members of a local Phi Beta Delta chapter who want to maintain active PBD membership status when their local chapter becomes inactive. Such members in good standing need not apply anew but simply request transfer of their PBD membership from their local chapter to Omega Omega and pay the annual membership dues directly to the PBD Headquarters.

Selection of Members:

1. The selection of members of the society is made without regard to gender, race, religion, national origin, disability, or affiliation with a protected class or group.
2. Members have equal rights and privileges.
3. Persons initiated into membership remain members for life. However, only active members enjoy membership privileges.

Active and Inactive Members:

1. Active Members: They have been initiated, are affiliated with the chapter, and have paid their dues for the current year. Active members enjoy such privileges as voting in elections, holding office in the chapter and on the PBD Board of Directors, serving as chapter delegates to the PBD annual conference, paying reduced conference registration fees, serving on committees appointed by the PBD Board, nominating and being nominated for PBD awards, and receiving e-mail announcements and informational items from the chapter and the PBD headquarters.
2. Inactive Members: They have not paid their dues for the current year. Such members shall be returned to active status when dues are paid to the chapter for the current year.

Fees:

1. An initiation fee shall be paid by the prospective members to the Phi Beta Delta headquarters before initiation. The initiation fee also shall serve as their annual dues for their initial year as members. Thereafter, each member will pay the continuing annual dues.
2. The amounts for the initiation fee and annual dues are posted on this link <http://www.phibetadelta.org/onlineshop>.
3. Members also have the option of paying for Lifetime Membership (see the link above), with continued active status and continuation of membership privileges.

Note: Applicants with proof of prior membership in PBD are exempt from the initiation fee since they have already paid the initiation fee when they joined the Society in the past.
